Student Competition Judging Reminder for the 2024 Southeastern Branch Meeting

esa@confex.com to me Mon, Mar 18, 6:26 AM

Dear Alfred Daniel:

Thank you once again for serving as a judge for the 2024 Southeastern Branch Student Competition.

To judge/view your assigned Student Poster Competition presentations, please use this link:
<https://esa.confex.com/esa/2024seb/scposter/reviewers/compactreview.cgi?username=100205&password=770224>

In case you are asked to login, you will need the following access codes:
Username: 100205
Password: 770224

Select the individual ID or the Title of the presentation you are judging, then hit "Continue." You will see the presentation, followed by a review form, appear on the next page. Fill in that form and select "Submit." You follow the same process for each presentation in your session. If you need to adjust scores or comments, you will have the ability to access the presentations and make revisions until 6:00 PM on Monday, March 18.

Below are a few things to keep in mind during the competition:

- Your scores are to be uploaded to the Confex system by 6:00 PM on Monday, March 18. You should enter them online using the link provided below. This will allow time to average scores, select winners, and settle any ties.
- Students appreciate any feedback you may be able to provide. In order to facilitate this, we have added some pre-selected comments to the judges form for your convenience, as well as a place for you to write-in any additional comments.
- Please be sensitive to those participating in the competition by providing constructive and helpful comments and remarks. Each of us have been helped early in our careers by professionals who jumped in to help last minute problems. These gestures are not forgotten and repaid to subsequent students many times over.

You will have two options for keeping score during the presentations; either the hardcopy spreadsheet or the online system (link provided below). The Confex judges' scoring site is also formatted for mobile phones. You can easily access your assigned presentations and the judges' scorecard on your phone, tablet or laptop by using the link below. If you prefer to score on paper first, please print a copy to bring with you to the meeting. All scores will ultimately be entered online.

If you experience any technical issues, please contact ESA's Becky Anthony at banthony@entsoc.org.

Thank you very much for your service!

Estelle Martin and Santos Portugal
Southeastern Branch Student Awards Co-Chairs

Reply Forward

Dear Alfred Daniel,

Thank you once again for serving as a judge for this year's student competition.

You can view the session(s) to which you are assigned in the online program at <https://entomology2023.eventscribe.net/>. The date, time, and location of the session will be listed in the program.

All scores must be submitted online in the Judging Portal by 10:00 PM Eastern on Monday, November 6.

Judges Training

We are offering two online Judges Training sessions as well as two onsite sessions. All judges and alternates are required to attend one of the training sessions. Any judges electing to participate in one of judging student paper competition at the TES Annual Meeting Inbox x

JAMES PARKMAN <parkman07@comcast.net> to me Thu, Sep 28, 2023, 12:46 PM

Hello Dr. Johnson,
I am Pat Parkman, Chair of the Tennessee Entomological Society's Awards Committee. I also organize the judging of the student papers at the Society's annual meetings. It was brought to my attention that you have shown interest in serving as a judge at this year's meeting, and I think that's great. It is always nice to get a fresh perspective. What I'm saying is that you are more than welcome to serve as a judge.

All of the student participants should be giving their presentations on the first day of the conference (Oct. 9) with the first paper scheduled to begin shortly after 1:00 pm. I wouldn't be surprised if the competition doesn't end until after 5:00. Winners will be announced the morning of the 10th. I hope to have at least 4, but ideally 5, judges.

Let me know ASAP if you still wish to serve as a judge. The student paper competition is usually quite competitive, so having more judges should result in the best presentations taking the awards. Attached is the judges' competition evaluation form.

Cheers,

Pat Parkman
